SOCIETY EDITOR.

The social season has awakened at last, but society women are so deeply concerned in the political situation that the social diversions are really of secondary importance. At the functions that have been given here past week tea cup gossip has been confined largely to politics. At the down town headquarters of both parties one is sure to find well known matrons, who, if not officially connected with committees, are at least offering their support. Women's interests are indeed different from what they were a few years ago. Even the young girls no longer are content with a mere butterfly existence. Pretty little Miss Ruth Griffin was one of the first girls who declared her declaration of independence. A clever amateur actress who won favor in Country club plays she decided upon the stage for a career and is now with the Ed Redmond company in San Jose. Miss Harriet Hurley and Miss Ruth Jessop are teaching in the public schools and Miss Ruth Amesworth had prepared herself for the same line of work and would have carried out her ideas but for her marriage to Charles Strong Witbeck. Mr. and Mrs. Witbeck, by the way, are now in New York at present, and will be here on the twenty-eighth. They plan to be in Phoenix but a short period and during those few days will probably see but little of two of their close friends, Miss Eleanor Sloan and Miss Marion Dorris, who are attending business college. They are tremendously interested in the study of stenography and have little or no time to devote to the gaiety which formerly occupied so much of their time. They have cancelled all engagements for afternoon affairs and not all their evenings will be given over to frivolity for they recognize that study hours must be put to account. Both girls are ambitious to make a record and are considered splendid students even in the short time they have given to business. Speaking of business, Mrs. P. Y. Tupper of St. Louis is to open a tea garden within the coming fortnight at her attractive home "The Rosary." Why no one ever thought of such a delightful idea before is a mystery for it is just exactly what is needed here. The gardens that surround the North Central avenue residence are ideal and Mrs. Tupper's plans are charming in detail. The innovation will undoubtedly prove successful.

In honor of Dr. Charlotte Brown of Los Angeles, Mrs. William S. Humbert gave a beautifully appointed luncheon yesterday at her home on North First avenue. La France roses were used in decoration with artistic effect. Covers were laid for Dr. Brown, Dr. and Mrs. Edwin J. Gillette, Mr. and Mrs. William Kennedy Humbert, Dr. Mary Neff, Mrs. William E. Defty, Mrs. W. W. Wilkinson, Miss Nell Wilkinson, Miss Fannie Archer and Miss Annie Archer.

The Utopia club will inaugurate its third season with a dance at the Woman's club Friday evening, November 2. The calendar for the year contains many interesting affairs and the members are anticipating a delightful winter.

Miss Mary Sloan gave a dance at her home on North Central avenue Friday evening to the members of the Junior set. The guest list included Miss Ellen Burton, Miss Ida May Goize, Miss Ermine Hackbart, Miss Dorothy Brownfield, Miss Philia Jones, Miss Dorothy Wilber, Miss Alice Hall, Miss Margaret Hall, Miss Martel Finley, Miss Helen Ellis, Horace McKee, Lloyd Trille, Leonard Herwig, Louis Hart, Sam Coldren, Donald Scott, Norman Hurley, Paul Becker, Harold Moore and Gordon Shackelford.

Mrs. Edwin Earl Nash has returned from an absence of several months passed in Colorado Springs. During the summer Mrs. Nash visited in Michigan touring the state.

Mrs. H. C. Wilkoff of North Central avenue, presided over a prettily appointed bridge luncheon on Monday. The decoration of La France roses and asparagus plumosus was particularly attractive. Prizes were won by Mrs. S. R. Mills and Mrs. H. C. Harter. The guests list included Mrs. Wesley Hill, Mrs. Garland Couch, Mrs. A. C. Dodge, Mrs. Charles Lambert, Mrs. C. W. Harter, Mrs. Robert Fisher, Mrs. S. R. Mills, Mrs. Mary L. Battell, Mrs. Ralph Cameron, Mrs. James Chadwick Rieger, Mrs. A. J. Hartman and Mrs. Con P. Cronin.

Mr. and Mrs. Winfield Hartman were informal dinner hosts recently at the country place on Broadway road. Their guests were Mr. and Mrs. Paul Bennett and Miss Ruth Jessop.

Mrs. T. W. Pemberton gave a small dinner Thursday evening, covers being laid for Mr. and Mrs. Harold Pemberton and Mrs. Clay Parker.

Miss Annie Munson gave a charmingly arranged dinner of ten covers Thursday evening at her country home on Woodford road in compliment to Mr. and Mrs. Fred Callahan of Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter S. Gannon left Monday for San Francisco. During their fortnight's stay in Phoenix they were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Redewill.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Rieger have returned from their honeymoon passed at the Grand Canyon, and are at home at 189 West Jefferson street. Mrs. Rieger before her marriage was Miss Ruth St. Clair.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Callahan, who leave this evening for Chicago, were extensively feted the past week. Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Thomas gave a delightful "Banco" party in their honor Wednesday evening. Their guests numbering sixteen. The preceding afternoon the Thomases gave a pleasant tea for Mrs. Callahan to which were invited Mrs. William Kennedy Humbert, Mrs. Earl Curtis, Mrs. Eugene White, Mrs. Ernest Munson, Mrs. John O'Sullivan, Mrs. Frank Via-Hi, Mrs. Harry Smith, Mrs. R. L. Parker, Mrs. W. D. Copson, Mrs. Ed. Whittelsey, and Miss Fay Delmund.

The County Club will give a supper and dance on the evening of the twenty-sixth. The affair is being largely anticipated as the initial dance of the season.

The announcement of several musical events of note has created quite a bit of concert enthusiasm. Engle Redewill and William Conrad Mills will be responsible for bringing to Phoenix a number of famous artists. The social season here, while exceedingly gay, has been lacking the diversified attractions, especially musical events that are worth while. Mr. Mills promises a noteworthy winter in this respect in looking Schumann, Goethel, Cadman, and others. Redewill has the top Minneapolis orchestra, and is seriously contemplating other bookings.

Mrs. Frank Livermore returned to Yuma Monday, after a delightful stay in town, the guest of Mrs. E. E. Kirkland, and in Glendale where she was entertained by Mrs. F. J. Jack.

Mrs. Stanley Matthews returned to her home in El Paso Wednesday, after a fortnight's stay in Phoenix, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Fennemore.

Miss Margaret Treadway, who passed last winter in Phoenix, arrived from the coast on Monday and will be here a few weeks, the guests of the Warren McArthur.

Power Conway returned from an extensive eastern trip on Monday. Miss Ellen Conway, who is at present in Los Angeles, will be at home November 1.

Mrs. Alfred Rowlands, who passed the week with the Jack Rowlands, returned to her home in El Paso Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Vialit and Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Pratt are planning a week's camping trip. They will leave for Roosevelt Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Campbell are occupying the Lamar Cobb residence, 14 North Eighteenth avenue, where they will be domiciled for the next two months. Mr. and Mrs. Cobb left the end of the week for a month's tour through the southern part of the state and on their return will be established at the Adams.

In honor of her sister, Mrs. Mary L. Battell, who is visiting here from Kansas City, and her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Henry Rieger, Mrs. James Chadwick Rieger, gave a delightfully appointed bridge luncheon Friday at her home on the McDowell Road. A pink and white color tone was employed, and the clever ideas of the decorator were expressed in a lovely arrangement of roses. The guests were gathered around ten small tables, each with a bud vase containing a choice rose as its centerpiece. About the rooms were fragrant vases and baskets of roses. Asked to meet the guests of honor were Mrs. James H. McClintock, Mrs. Anell Martin, Mrs. W. H. Sargent, Mrs. James Johnson, Mrs. Ralph Cameron, Mrs. Fred Humphrey, Mrs. A. R. Nichols, Mrs. E. H. Abbot, Mrs. C. A. Dodge, Mrs. Frank Blount, Mrs. J. Elliot, Mrs. Jefferson Campbell, Mrs. A. J. Hartman, Mrs. H. C. Wilkoff, Mrs. Edwin J. Gillette, Mrs. Rupert Moore, Mrs. H. M. Fennemore, Mrs. H. R. St. Claire, Mrs. Laura Harrison, Mrs. Andrew Miller, Mrs. Walter Talbot, Mrs. William Sudor, Mrs. C. H. Pratt, Mrs. William Burton McCandless, Mrs. J. C. Brown, Mrs. Victor Haggerty, Mrs. Paul Collings, Mrs. E. Phoebe Palmer, Mrs. Fen Hildreth, Mrs. C. M. Scott, Mrs. E. W. Taylor, Mrs. Francis H. Redewill, Mrs. Preston Shyback, of Ray, Mrs. William Utley of Tombstone, Mrs. R. C. Fowler, Mrs. D. H. Burtis, Mrs. D. F. Johnson, Mrs. D. D. Northrup, Mrs. F. H. Emsgen, Mrs. Fred Perkins, Mrs. Minnie L. Wood, Mrs. J. E. Gillespie, Mrs. E. B.

CLUB NOTES

Official Organ State Federation of Clubs

The Central Arizona District Federation of Women's club will meet in Tempe in all day session, Wednesday, October 25. Mrs. H. G. Morgan of Wilcox, president of the State Federation will be the guest of honor and will contribute to the program with an address on "Creating Greater Enthusiasm in Club Work."

Mrs. H. A. Gould, president of the district federation, has arranged the program with a view toward making the day both pleasant and profitable. The Tempe Woman's club, the hostess club, shares Mrs. Gould's wish that officers, delegates, alternates of the federated club and other club members who are interested, attend the gathering which will be held at the First M. E. church of Tempe. The ladies of the church will serve a thirty-five cent luncheon at the noon hour.

A letter of greeting will be read from Mrs. E. A. Fowler who is at present in Los Angeles. Mrs. Fowler was the organizer and first president of the federation, and continues to keep in touch with the association of which she is honorary president.

"The district federation," says Mrs. Ed Shaw, chairman of the press committee, "has amply proven its right to existence although its president, Mrs. H. A. Gould, sees in that no reason for a drifting policy. A country woman for many years city resident, there could have been no wiser successor to Mrs. E. A. Fowler than she, for both have been, by training and environment, particularly fitted to direct a club made up of country and town women, for the reason that each class has its separate and distinct outlook upon life and their little problems and diversions, not the least of which is the country woman's constant temptation to inactivity because of the sheer enjoyment of her isolation and the town woman's fostered gregariousness.

"Something of all this must be understood by the leader of such a group of clubs. Something of the lack in each group must appeal to the individual members of such an organization as the District Federation to make all desire to foster the get-together idea of the founders and that it has been a success we realize from the things we now know of one another for we know that the gulf that a decade ago seemed to exist between the dwellers in the villages and the women in active partnership with their husbands in the rural districts, has no foundation in ultimate fact. We have all come into life where there is a definite purpose awaiting the fulfillment of our effort and labor. Just how the American women have elected to fulfill their destiny is no longer mere guess work for their activities have been as numerous as the results have been gratifying.

"And it does not matter to us that every phase of our complex civilization has rubbed elbows with the federation. Just how the American women have elected to fulfill their destiny is no longer mere guess work for their activities have been as numerous as the results have been gratifying.
